Programme of Census Reports

1. A Preliminary Report on the 1971 Census was published in October, 1971, and contained a brief statistical commentary and provisional figures of the population, private dwellings and private households for all local authority areas (counties, county boroughs, municipal boroughs, urban and rural districts) and population figures for small towns and villages with 50 or more houses but having no defined boundaries.

2. County Reports

Reports were published for each of the Counties of Fermanagh, Tyrone, Londonderry (including Londonderry County Borough), Armagh, Down, Antrim and the County Borough of Belfast. The tables gave figures for counties, local authority areas, wards, district electoral divisions and towns and villages with 50 or more houses. The subjects covered were population and area (hectares); sex, age and marital condition; birthplace; religion; private dwellings, households, tenure and amenities; private motor cars and garaging; economically active persons and their sex and occupational status.

3. Summary Tables

Summary tables gave summaries of the information contained in the County Reports for Northern Ireland. Additionally, this report gave statistics covering the same subjects included in the County Reports for the new local authority areas which became functional on 1st October, 1973.

4. Housing and Household Composition Tables

The Housing Tables contained tabulations, not covered by the County Reports, on dwellings, households, tenure, household amenities, cars and garaging. Most tables referred to Northern Ireland but some tables included figures for local authority areas. The Household Composition Tables provided information on the composition and social and economic characteristics of households.

5. Economic Activity Tables

The Economic Activity Tables will give statistics of the occupied population based on their personal occupation and the employed population classified according to the branches of industry in which they are employed with reference to age, marital condition, employment status, socio-economic group, etc. Most tables will refer to Northern Ireland but some tables will cover local authority areas.

6. Workplace and Transport to Work Tables

These tables will contain details of the resident population and the population employed in each area, the main workplace movements from one area to another and the main means of transport to work used for such movements.

7. Migration Tables

These tables will give statistics of the numbers and characteristics of people who changed their usual residence in the year or in the five years before Census day with details of their age, sex, marital condition, area of previous residence; and of the number and characteristics of migrant households.

8. Religion Tables

The Religion Tables give, by the main religious denominations, details of the people by sex, age, marital condition, occupation, industry and socio-economic group; and the numbers and characteristics of households.

9. Education Tables

These tables will give details of the age, sex, occupation and industry of those people who had obtained any academic or vocational qualification and details of the type level and subject of the qualification held.

10. Fertility Tables

The Fertility Tables will give statistics derived from information supplied for married women under 60 years of age at Census about the date of marriage and the number and spacing of children born alive to them in marriage.

RELIGION TABLES

General Explanatory Notes

The tables in this report compare the numbers in each of the four main religious denominations, with classifications by age, occupation, industry and educational attainment. Households classified by the religion of the household head are analysed by size, density of occupation, tenure and availability of amenities.

Census Population

The 1971 Census population comprises all persons, irrespective of their usual address or nationality, who spent census in the area of enumeration. Members of the Armed Forces (including those of Commonwealth and foreign countries except personnel aboard foreign naval vessels) are included. Persons travelling on census night were enumerated with the population of the district in which they arrived the next day unless they had already been enumerated elsewhere. Persons on vessels at moorings or anchorages in Northern Ireland ports were counted as part of the population of the district containing the mooring, anchorage or arrival port. (The enumerated population excludes persons who, although usually resident in the area, spent census night elsewhere. People on night work were regarded as present in their homes for census purposes).

Population covered in this Report

The statistics in this report refer to the population who were stated to be usually resident in Northern Ireland.

Persons who usually live outside Northern Ireland and members of the armed forces enumerated in barracks or on board HM ships are excluded.

Religion

It was not obligatory to answer the question on religion. The question was worded as follows:

State the particular Religion, Religious Denomination or Body to which the person belongs. (The term Protestant should not be used alone and the title of any denomination should be given as precisely as possible).

The classification of religions includes a separate heading for each religion. A list of the religious denominations with ten or more adherents is given in the Appendix. Religions which differ only or mainly in denominational terminology are generally grouped together; the figures for the group as a whole are shown under the name by which the group is officially or commonly known. Thus the heading Presbyterian includes United Presbyterian, Trinitarian and Church of Scotland. Church of Ireland is regarded as embracing both Anglican and Episcopalian. Figures for Church of England and Episcopal Church of Scotland are merged with those for the Church of Ireland.

Age

Age is the completed years of age at census date and was calculated from the information given in reply to the question on date of birth.

Dwellings

Dwellings are classified on the basis of instructions issued to the Census enumerators and which are summarised as follows:

Dwellings were normally private dwelling houses, bungalows, including prefabricated bungalows provided by a local authority, or flats with independent access to the street or to a common staircase or hall.

Where houses or other buildings had been adapted to provide residential accommodation in smaller units, these smaller units were regarded as dwellings if they were structurally separate, i.e., if such a unit had a separate front door to the street, or if access to the main door was gained by means of a common staircase or landing. In order for such a unit to count as a dwelling it also had to be self-contained, allowing movement between its rooms internally without making use of the common staircase or landing and the household arrangements, viz., kitchen, bathroom and water closet were not shared with the occupants of another unit of accommodation in the building. Bed-sitting rooms (sometimes called flatlets) were not counted as separate dwellings.

Private Households

The private household is the basic unit of enumeration in the census. A private household was defined as:

- (a) any person living alone and providing his or her own meals; or
- (b) any group of persons, whether related or not, who live together partaking of meals prepared together benefiting from a common housekeeping.

A boarder having at least one meal (breakfast counts as a meal for this purpose) a day with the household counts as a member of the household. A lodger taking no meals with the main household counts as a separate one-person household, even if he shares kitchen and bathroom. A person or a group of people living in a non-private establishment were treated as a separate household if they were either:

- (a) a family who does not normally depend on the establishment for the provision of meals, or

(b) a person or group for whom the establishment does not provide any daily meals.

A private household had to have the exclusive use of at least one room. If two people shared one room, although each may have had separate catering arrangements and did not have exclusive use of at least one other room they were treated as one household.

Rooms

The following question and notes were included on the Census H form for private households:

How many rooms are there in your household's accommodation?

Do not count

- Bathrooms and toilets,
- small kitchens less than 6 feet by 6 feet,
- sculleries not used for cooking,
- closets, pantries and storerooms,
- landings, halls, lobbies and recesses,
- offices or shops used solely for business purposes.

Note:

A large room divided by a sliding or fixed partition should be counted as two rooms.

A room divided by curtains or portable screens should be counted as one room.

In unshared dwellings the head of the household completed the answer to this question. In shared dwellings the enumerator was instructed to enquire of each household in the dwelling if any room was shared by another household. If any room was shared by two or more households he was further instructed to check the answer to the question and, if necessary, alter it to show the extent of the sharing.

In the Tables classifying households by rooms occupied, any room shared by two or more households is allocated to one (usually the main) household to avoid the use of fractions and to ensure that the total number of rooms in the dwelling is not altered.

The enumerator provided an estimate of the number of rooms in vacant accommodation and for accommodation from which the occupier was absent on census night.

The 1971 Census definition of 'room' included all kitchens, provided they were at least 6 feet wide, whereas at the 1961 and 1966 censuses kitchens were only counted if regularly used for meals.

Density of Occupation

The density of occupation of a household is the ratio of the number of persons in the household to the number of rooms occupied by the household. The following ratios of density are used:

- over 1½ persons per room
- over 1 and up to 1½ persons per room
- over ¾ and up to 1 person per room
- ½ and over and up to ¾ persons per room
- less than ½ person per room.

Tenure

Heads of households were required to indicate under the following headings how they occupied their accommodation:

- (1) As an owner occupier (including purchase by mortgage)
- (2) By renting it from a local or public authority
- (3) As an unfurnished letting from a private landlord or company
- (4) As a furnished letting
- (5) In some other way

(Please give details, including whether furnished or unfurnished):

If more than one box was ticked the census staff decided the most appropriate answer, and in the absence of any further information assigned to the lowest numbered category. If answer five applied and it was indicated that the accommodation was rented with a farm, shop or other business premises, or occupied by virtue of employment, the tenure was classified as rented unfurnished from a private landlord unless furnished was specified, when the tenure was treated as rented furnished.

A shared dwelling was classified according to the tenure stated by the main household, the latter being identified on the basis of a graded list of tenures, 'owner occupied' taking precedence over 'rented' and 'rented unfurnished' taking precedence over 'rented furnished'.

Household Amenities

The amenities on which information was collected in respect of each private household are listed below. The householder was required to indicate whether individual amenities were used by the household only, shared with another household or were not available:

- (a) A cooker or cooking stove with an oven
- (b) A kitchen sink permanently connected to a water supply and a waste pipe
- (c) A fixed bath or shower permanently connected to a water supply and a waste pipe
- (d) A hot water supply (to a washbasin, a kitchen sink, or bath, or shower) from a heating appliance or boiler which is connected to a piped water supply
- (e) A flush toilet (W.C.) with entrance inside the building
- (f) A flush toilet (W.C.) with entrance outside the building

If part (e) (flush toilet with entrance inside the building) or part (f) (flush toilet with entrance outside the building) was unanswered, with "yes" to the other part, the unanswered part was assumed not to be available.

Head of Household

The head of the household was the person so described on the census form by the householder making the return provided that person was not under 16 years of age, a visitor or a resident domestic servant.

If more than one person, or if no person, was described as head the first stated resident person on the form who was aged 16 and not a domestic servant was selected as head.

Economic Position

The economic position classification divides the economically active from the inactive and provides further sub-division of these groups as follows:

Economically Inactive

- (a) Retired means formerly occupied persons who have ceased working and are no longer seeking further employment. Housewives and persons engaged in home duties are not classified as "retired".
- (b) Students are persons in full-time attendance at an educational establishment irrespective of whether or not they have part-time or seasonal employment.
- (c) Others economically inactive are those persons never in employment and not seeking it. Included are persons of independent means, housewives and others engaged on unpaid domestic duties, the permanently sick or disabled, residents of chronic sick and psychiatric hospitals and prisoners who were serving a sentence of six months or more. Trainees in Government training centres were by convention included in this group.

Economically Active

- (a) In employment means those who had a job or worked for payment or profit during the week ended 24th April 1971. Included are own-account workers, part-time workers, casual or temporary workers and persons working in a family business. Persons temporarily away from work during the week because of holidays, sickness or injury, strikes or industrial disputes and temporary laid-off are counted as in employment if their jobs are awaiting them when they are in a position to resume work.
- (b) Out of employment means persons actively seeking work, persons prevented from seeking work by temporary sickness and those who found a job but were to start work after census day.

Employment Status

The classification of employment status divides the employee from the self-employed as follows:

Self-employed

Self-employed without employees - includes persons not employed by any person or company and persons working in their own home for an employer (outworkers).

All parochial clergy and members of a partnership without paid employee(s) are also included. Domestic servants do not count as employees for determining whether or not a self-employed person has employees.

Self-employed with employees - Large establishments. A self-employed person, provided he is not a farmer, forester, market-gardener or fisherman, is assigned to this group if he employs 25 or more persons.

Small establishments. This includes self-employed persons with fewer than 25 employees, including all self-employed persons with occupation of farmer, market-gardener, fisherman and forester.

Employees. These are persons who have not been classified as self-employed.

Managers - includes all employees coded to occupation groups 173-180 (Administrators and Managers), all employees not being self-employed coded to groups 002 (Farmers, farm managers, market-gardeners), 115 (Deck, engineering officers and pilots, ship), 138 (Office Managers), 143 (Proprietors and Managers, sales), 149 (Finance, insurance brokers, financial agents), 154 (Publicans, innkeepers), 156 (Proprietors and managers, boarding houses and hotels), 159 (Restaurateurs) and 171 (Proprietors and managers, service, sport and recreations); persons occupied as managers, persons returned as managers and other persons of equivalent rank whose occupation code is preceded by 'M' in the occupation index and all persons returned as directors of companies, except professional workers with occupation groups 181, 182, 184, 186, 195-198, 200-205, 209-214 and 217, who are excluded.

Large establishments. This includes managers in establishments employing 25 or more persons, including all civil servants, local government officials and ships' officers coded as managers, aircraft captains and flight managers.

Small establishments - includes all persons of managerial status not included in the 'Large establishment' category and in particular it includes all farmers, trawler skippers and foresters.

Foremen and supervisors. This group includes all persons described on the census form as foreman, boss, chargehand, chargeman, gaffer, ganger, headman, overlooker, overman, overseer, supervisor, and all persons whose occupation code is preceded by 'F' in the occupation index.

Apprentices, articulated clerks and formal trainees - includes persons undergoing training for a period fixed in advance, leading to recognition as a skilled worker or technician and/or to a recognised technical, commercial or professional qualification or management post. The status apprentice is only applied to active persons in employment.

Family workers. Persons employed by and living in the same household as a relative. Family workers who are managers, foremen or apprentices are coded as managers etc., and not as family workers. Professional workers are never coded as family workers.

Other employees. This status is given to all employed persons not elsewhere classified.

Classification of Occupations

The occupation of a person is the kind of work which he or she performs, due regard being paid to the conditions under which it is performed; this alone determines the particular group in an occupation classification to which the person is assigned. The nature of the factory, business, or service in which the person is employed has no bearing upon the classification of his occupation, except to the extent that it enables the nature of his duties to be more clearly defined. This will perhaps be made clearer by an example. A crane driver may be employed in a shipyard, an engineering works or in building and construction, but this has no bearing upon his occupation and all crane drivers should be classified to the same occupational group. A full description of the occupation classification used in the census is given in the "Classification of Occupations 1970" (H.M.S.O. 1970).

Classification of Industries

Persons are classified by the industry in which they were employed at the time of the Census. The basis of this classification is the revised "Standard Industrial Classification" (H.M.S.O. 1968).

The classification is based on industries and not on occupations. All persons (including administrative, technical, clerical and ancillary staffs) employed in a 'unit' of industry are included, irrespective of their occupations, in the figures of employment for the industry to which the unit is classified. The classification is also based on industries without regard to who owns or operates them. Thus the manufacturing 'units' owned or operated by the Central Government are classified in the same way as those in private hands and are not included under 'National Government Service'. Similarly, the transport services operated by local authorities are included under 'transport' and not under 'Local Government Services'.

Educational Attainment

Table 10 classifies the population aged 18-69 years by religion and educational attainment with a broad subject analysis.

The qualified persons are those who gained qualifications at a level above that required for G.C.E. 'A' level or equivalent. Such qualifications include higher and first university degrees, and qualifications obtained at 18 years of age or over which are higher than G.C.E. 'A' level.

Unqualified persons are divided into those who have obtained qualifications equivalent to G.C.E. 'A' level, including Northern Ireland Senior Certificate, Ordinary National Diploma and Ordinary National Certificate, and 'others' who may or may not hold qualifications below G.C.E. 'A' level.

Subject Classification

The subject classification used in the Census was that evolved by the Department of Education and Science in consultation with the Scottish and Northern Ireland Departments of Education and other bodies with education interests.

The full classification identifies 76 primary subjects, condensing into 10 subject groups. Only the broad classification of subject groups is used in this report.

A full description of the subject classification is given in the "Education Statistics for the United Kingdom 1967" (H.M.S.O. 1970).

Presentation Conventions

A dash (—) indicates that the entry is zero.

A blank indicates that a particular combination of line and column is impossible.

In the presentation of rates, a rate shown as 0 indicates that the actual rate is less than one half of a unit but is not zero.

Areas for which statistics are presented

Local authority areas

The local authority areas adopted for the purposes of this report are the new District Council Areas which were established following the passing of the Local Government (Boundaries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 and the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972, and which became functional on 1st October 1973. The District Council Areas are divided into Wards, the number of Wards per Area varying from 15 to 30, with the exception of the Belfast District Council Area which is divided into 51 Wards. The Wards form the territorial units for the purpose of election to the local councils.

Information for the local authority areas which existed at the time of the Census has been published in the various County Reports.
