

CENSUS, NORTHERN IRELAND, 1961

HOUSEHOLD RETURN A1

Form issued by the Registrar-General pursuant to the Census Act, 1960

NOTICE

- 1. The Head, or person acting as Head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this form in respect of all persons (members of the household, including visitors, employees and boarders) who are present at midnight on the night of Sunday, 23rd April, 1961, in the dwelling, and all persons who arrive at the dwelling and join the household on Monday, 24th April, 1961, before the collection of the return and who have not been enumerated elsewhere.
2. If a house or part of a house, flat, apartment, etc., is let or sublet to separate households then each occupier must make a separate Return applicable to his part of the accommodation. Boarders are not to be considered as separate occupiers but as part of the household with which they board.
3. In the case of Hotels, Boarding Houses, Lodging Houses and similar establishments, the Manager or other person in charge must make a Return in respect of all persons who spend Census night on the premises or who arrive there on Monday, 24th April, 1961, and who have not been enumerated elsewhere.

4. Every person is required by law to give to the person making the Return such information as may be necessary to enable the Return to be made. But should a person object to giving the information in this way he may obtain from the enumerator or the nearest Police Station a form on which to make a separate Return, in which case the person responsible for making the main Return should complete columns A and B only in respect of that person.

5. This Return must be ready on MONDAY, 24th APRIL. If the answers appear to the enumerator to be incomplete or inaccurate he must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Return.

6. The person responsible for making the Return may, if unable to deliver it to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the Return may be given under cover to such other person for handing to the enumerator.

7. If any person whose duty it is to make a Return or to give information refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the Return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds. There is no penalty for refusing to state religious profession.

8. The contents of the Return are strictly confidential.

L. C. MULLIGAN, Registrar-General.
