

get counted in now

We urgently need your Census form.

Your Census form is now overdue.

According to our records we have not yet received a completed Census form for your household.

It is essential that everyone in Northern Ireland is counted in.

If you have still not returned your Census form, please do so immediately.

Remember, the information gathered by the Census is vital for planning ahead and delivering the services needed by the public.

If you need help filling in your form, please call 0845 3020011.

Complete and post back your Census form today - if you don't you may be liable for a fine of up to £1000.

Thank you.

Census helpline number is 0845 3020011 (textphone 0845 3032001)

count me in Census2001