

Dear Householder

I have still not received a completed Census form from you, and representatives of the Census Office have now made repeated attempts to contact you to obtain a completed form.

Completion of the Census form is compulsory under the Census Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 and refusal to comply may result in a fine of up to £1,000.

Please note that the requirement for you to return a completed form will not be satisfied until such a form has been received.

The completed Census form should be posted back immediately in the envelope that was provided otherwise the matter will be referred to the Census Office's legal department.

If this address is not someone's usual residence or a form has been left in error, please return it with an explanatory note in the envelope provided.
