

Breach of the Code of Practice for Statistics

January 2021 update

Prior to the publication on the 22nd January 2021 of 'Weekly Deaths for week ending 15th January' a tweet associated with the report was released in error at 9.00am, contrary to Practice T3.4 of the Code of Practice for Statistics. This was subsequently removed at 9.02am.

March 2021 update

Breach of the Code of Practice for Statistics published on 12th March 2021: 'Weekly Deaths for week ending 5th March 2021' were live on the NISRA website at around 9.20am, thus prior to usual publication time of 9.30am. This is contrary to Practice T3.4 of the Code of Practice for Statistics and was due to a technical issue which is currently being investigated.