

Twitter Policy

Content

If you follow @ELMSNISRA, you can expect approximately 20 tweets a month covering some or all of the following:

1. Alerts about new content on our website (news, publications)
2. Updates and information about ongoing and upcoming user consultations
3. Other information about NISRA Economic and Labour Market Statistics (ELMS) which we think would be useful and interesting to others

The majority of our tweets are on days on which we publish new statistics. Our publication schedule can be accessed here.

Following

If you follow us on Twitter we will not automatically follow you back. Being followed by @ELMSNISRA on Twitter does not imply endorsement of any kind.

Availability

We will update and monitor our Twitter account during office hours, Monday to Friday. Twitter may occasionally be unavailable and we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to Twitter downtime.

Replies and Direct Messages

We welcome feedback and ideas from all our followers, and we may join the conversation where possible. All replies and Direct Messages are read to ensure that any emerging themes or helpful suggestions are passed to the relevant teams within the Branch. The standard way for contacting us for official correspondence is through our generic mailbox econstatistics@nisra.gov.uk.

Moderation

In order for this dialogue to comply with the law and with the Civil Service Code, you must not include:

- Party political material.
- Potentially libelous, false, or defamatory statements.
- Any commercial endorsement, promotion of any product, service or publication.
- Language which is offensive, intemperate, or provocative. This not only includes obvious swear words and insults, but any language to which people reading it could reasonably take offence.
- Comments which breach our social network's own standard terms and conditions.

Please also ensure that your comments:

- Are respectful of others – comments should not be malicious or offensive in nature, and should not constitute a personal attack on a person's character.
- Do not incite hatred on the basis of race, religion, gender, nationality or sexuality or other personal characteristics.
- Do not reveal personal details, such as private addresses, phone numbers, email addresses or other online contact details.
- Do not break the law – this includes libel, condoning illegal activity, and breaking copyright.
- Are reasonably concise, and do not constitute spamming of the site.
- Are relevant – please do not post messages unrelated to the subject under discussion.
